BBOD Project Member Finalist for a Prestigious Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce Award

(Phoenix) Monica Stigler, public policy research assistant, ASU Morrison Institute for Public Policy, has been named one of three finalists for the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce Athena Award for Young Professionals.

This award honors an emerging local leader between the ages of 21 -35 who demonstrates professional excellence with a high degree of community involvement and clearly serves as a role model for young women in the Valley.

Monica has volunteered with many organizations including Teen Choice Academy, AKARAMA, City of Goodyear, Community Educational Services and Arizona Community Foundation.

The award will be presented on October 21, 2009 at the Arizona Biltmore Resort.

She earned a BA in history and a master of public administration degree from Arizona State University. She also received a certificate in non profit leadership and management from the Lodstar Center for Philanthropy and Non Profit Innovation.

Stigler is a member of the Black Board of Directors Project, a 26 year old advanced leadership organization that empowers its members as leaders in “Building a Great Tomorrow – Today!”
